RESEARCH & IDEATION

Ahead of planning, I researched Christmas events and activations across the East of England (markets, light trails, Santa experiences) to source local hooks and inform the in-person activation. I also put together a wider brainstorm of campaign concepts — promotions, giveaways, competitions and partnership ideas — benchmarked against other brands' seasonal campaigns, which fed into the final content plan and the virtual "North Pole" concept referenced in the main case study.

PLANNING & COORDINATION

Ran a shared campaign tracker spanning every workstream above plus the in-person activation (market bookings, game production, charity partnerships, signage and van livery), keeping design, video and PR contributors aligned against a shared December deadline.
